CAMP RULES & DISCIPLINARY POLICY

2024 Experience Earth Camp

Pickaway SWCD, Parks District, and RPHF Solid Waste District is dedicated to providing an outstanding day camp for the youth of Pickaway County. To achieve this goal campers are expected to behave appropriately. The staff will use a positive approach to discipline and will seek parental/guardian support to resolve behavior issues and to encourage positive behavior. Participants who remain disruptive after consultation with parents/guardians may be dismissed from the program. Please review the Camp Rules & Disciplinary Policy with your child so that he/she fully understands the expectations.

Camp Rules

- 🌐 When camper arrives, they will check-in at the registration table with parent/guardian before joining their group. Check in may include a temperature check. A camper will leave the camp area only in the company of someone authorized to pick him/her up. "Authorized" pick-up person will check-out camper at the registration table. List "Authorized" names on Registration Form.
- 🌐 Campers will remain in their group (assigned on 1st day) at all times.
- 🌐 Wear shoes and clothing suitable for hiking and other outdoor activities.
- 🌐 Wear name tag at all times while at camp. Return name tag to Group Leader at end of day.
- 🌐 Show respect to other campers, staff, group leaders & session leaders, & cooperate fully with instructions.
- 🌐 Communicate in appropriate manner. Do not use foul language or gestures, harsh words or tone of voice.
- 🌐 Horseplay, unwelcome teasing, or deliberately causing bodily harm are not acceptable and will not be tolerated.
- 🌐 Use program equipment, supplies, and facilities properly.
- 🌐 Campers will be fully responsible for their actions and understand that irresponsible behavior will result in disciplinary action.
- 🌐 Abide by regulations made known by the hosting location and the hosting agencies: Pickaway Soil & Water Conservation District, Pickaway County Park District, and RPHF Solid Waste District.

Disciplinary Policy

For the benefit of all campers, it is important that children behave appropriately. If it becomes necessary to take disciplinary action against a camper, the steps followed are outlined below.

1st incident: The camper will receive a verbal warning and an explanation as to why their behavior is inappropriate. (Whenever possible, this will be done in a setting removed from other campers and in the presence of two camp staff members.)

2nd incident: Staff will determine an appropriate consequence for the camper's actions (examples may include a time out or exclusion from participating in an activity). The camper's parents will be notified of their behavior when they arrive to pick up the child.

3rd incident: The child will be excused from camp without a registration fee refund.
